Unit 4, Chapter 2 (Pages 72-78): Lottery Winners...Rich but Happy?

Please before reading the text ((Unit 4, Chapter 2)), read this summary (outline) first to get a grasp of what the text is about.

Outline of ideas of the text: Lottery Winners...Rich but Happy?

Main Idea: Lots people win big lotteries every now and then, but not all of them face a bright future!

-- When people get affluent overnight, they are going to need counselors helping them how to invest or spend their money.

-- Some lottery winners are sensible and know how to manage their money! But some others ain't wise and face unforeseen difficulties. Here we read about some of them.

-- Mr. Carroll: He won 10 million pounds when he was only 19 in England! He was a garbage collector who got rich overnight. He started to spend his money recklessly and soon lost all of it. He was even jailed for violent behavior. Finally, he lost all his money and became a garbage collector again! 😞

-- Billy and Jeff Wilson (father and son) won 29 million dollars in 2009 in the US. They tried their best to manage their money carefully with the help of counselors. They say that we are rich but we can see that a lot of rich people have serious problems and are not happy. But in general, they are happy and this money helped them in a positive way. 😊

-- Conclusion: If you ever win a lottery, try to listen to these suggestions:

1. Get a financial counseling
2. First, pay all your debts!
3. Invest your money
4. Keep your current job for the time being
